Guidelines and Expectations:

- No pranks are allowed. Those unwilling to abide by this simple guideline will be sent home. While pranks may be funny to some, they cause distractions from the purpose of the weekend.
- No pajama wearing around the hotel, only to bed.
- All students are financially responsible for any damages they might cause to or while in the hotel or at Leadership Rocks.
- TV time is to be kept to a minimum.
- No guys in girl's rooms. No girls in guy's rooms.
- Students are expected to stay in their room after lights-out.
- No fireworks, weapons, illegal drugs, alcohol, tobacco or any other inappropriate materials.
- Cell phones, iPods, etc. are allowed on the trip. However, students are expected to operate with a "time and place" mindset. Students will be asked to put cell phone/iPod away if necessary.
- Students are expected to be where they are supposed to be at the expected times and ready to participate.
